Dear colleagues,

It is our great honour and pleasure to invite you to join us in opening a discussion platform for researching the ways of being together in the society and the modes of responsible responding of an individual to challenges of the postmodern society today.

The Congress will take place in Zagreb, Croatia from 18-20 September, 2015 at Kino Europa and several Galleries of Contemporary Art in Centre of Zagreb and will consist of lectures involving experts in psychotherapy, ethics, philosophy, contemporary art, physics..., workshops led by experienced psychotherapists and contemporary artists, questionnaire-workshops and contemporary artists interventions (performance, photography, video work, installation) on the topic of the Congress.

- all students from the Gestalt Institutes participating in the Congress will obtain 30 credit hours for the Theory and Methodology course;
- all other participants will receive certificates and credit hours for continued education;

Registration fee for students and colleagues from EU countries - 150 eur
Registration fee for students and colleagues from non-EU countries - 100 eur

(this amount is for fees paid until 30 of April 2015)

IMPORTANT! After 30 April, registration fee is 250 eur for participants from EU countries and 200 eur for participants from non-EU countries

Registration form is available on http://kongres.intronaut.org You can find there all the relevant payment information.

As for the accommodation, we recommend some nice and comfortable hostels at affordable prices (around 10 Euros) in the center of Zagreb, in the close proximity of the Congress venues, so please inform us whether you plan to organize your stay alone or in our arrangement.

Looking forward to seeing you,

idija Pecotić, PhD – EAPTI - GPTIM
Organisational Board President and
Organisational Board for Congress – Sandra Grubić and Tajana Pavić (Intronaut)